- 3.2. The Product price or remuneration for the Product shown on the Online Shop website is given in Polish zlotys (PLN) or euros (EUR) (depending on the website settings and the Customer's delivery address) and includes taxes. The Customer is informed of the total price or remuneration including taxes, and if the nature of the Product does not allow, reasonably, to calculate their amount in advance - the way in which they will be calculated, as well as the delivery costs (including fees for transport, delivery or postal services) and of other costs, and when the amount of these fees cannot be determined - about the obligation to pay them, on the Online Shop website, including when placing the Order and when the Customer expresses the will to be bound by the Sales Contract.
- 3.3. In the Online Shop you can find Made-to-Order Products, for which production, in accordance with the specifications of a given Order, begins only after concluding a Sales Contract with the Customer. Additional information on this subject is provided on the Online Shop website in the description of a Made-to-Order Product.
- 3.4. The procedure of concluding a Sales Contract in the Online Shop using the Order Form
- 3.4.1. The conclusion of the Sales Contract between the Customer and the Seller takes place after the Customer has placed an Order in the Online Shop in accordance with clause. 2.1.2 of the Regulations.
- 3.4.2. After placing the Order, the Seller immediately confirms its receipt and at the same time accepts the Order for implementation. The confirmation of receipt of the Order and its acceptance for implementation occurs by sending by the Seller to the e-mail address provided at the time of placing the Order an e-mail, which contains at least the Seller's statement of receipt of the Order and its acceptance for implementation and confirmation of the Sales Contract. Upon receipt of the above e-mail by the Customer, the Sales Contract is concluded between the Customer and the Seller.

- 3.5. The content of the concluded Sales Contract is recorded, secured and made available to the Customer by (1) providing these Regulations on the Online Shop website and (2) sending the e-mail message referred to in clause 3.3.2. of the Regulations. The content of the Sales Contract is additionally recorded and secured in the IT system of the Seller's Online Shop.

4. METHODS AND DATES OF PAYMENT FOR THE PRODUCT

- 4.1. The Seller provides the Customer with the following methods of payment under the Sales Contract:
- 4.1.1. Payment by bank transfer to the Seller's bank account.
- 4.1.2. The electronic payments and credit card payments via Stripe.com – all possible current payment methods are specified on the Online Shop website during placing an Order and on the website <https://www.stripe.com>.
- 4.1.2.1. The settlement of transactions by electronic payments and credit cards are carried out in accordance with the Customer's choice through the Stripe.com service. The support for electronic payments and credit card payments is provided by:
- 4.1.2.1.1. Stripe.com - Stripe Payments Europe, Ltd. (1 Grand Canal Street Lower, Grand Canal Dock, Dublin, Ireland).
- 4.2. Payment deadline:
- 4.2.1. If the Customer chooses to pay electronically or by payment card, for technical reasons the Customer is obliged to make the payment directly after being redirected from the Order Form to the external payment gateway. Otherwise, the payment session will expire and the Order will not be completed. In case of any problems with the expiry of the payment, the Customer should repeat the Order as for the first time.
- 4.2.2. If the Customer chooses payment by transfer to the Seller's bank account, the Customer is obliged to make the payment within 3 calendar days from the day of concluding the Sales Contract.
- 4.2.3. Payment is deemed to have been made when the Seller's bank account or settlement account is credited.

5. THE COST, METHODS AND DELIVERY TIME AND THE RECEIPT OF THE PRODUCT

- 5.1. The delivery of the Product to the Customer is payable, unless the Sales Contract provides otherwise. The Product delivery costs (including charges for transport, delivery and postal services) are indicated to the Customer on the Online Shop website in the delivery costs tab and during the Order placement, including when the Customer expresses a will to be bound by the Sales Contract.
- 5.2. Personal collection of a Product by the Customer is free of charge.
- 5.3. The Seller provides the Customer with the following methods of delivery or collection of the Product:
- 5.3.1. Courier parcel.
- 5.3.2. Shipment with collection at a parcel machine or collection point selected by the Customer.
- 5.3.3. Personal collection available at: Pamiątkowa 2/17, 61-512 Poznań, Poland, Poland – after individually arranging the collection date with the Seller.
- 5.4. The deadline for delivery of the Product to the Customer is up to 35 Business Days, unless a shorter deadline is specified in the description of the Product or when placing the Order. In the case of Products with different delivery deadlines, the delivery deadline is the longest given deadline, which, however, can not exceed 35 Business Days.. The Seller will immediately inform the Customer about any expected delays in execution, e.g. by means of an appropriate message sent by e-mail to the address provided in the Order, and, if necessary, agree with the Customer on the further course of action. The beginning of the Product delivery time is counted from the date of payment under the Sales Contract, and in any case not earlier than from the date of receipt by the Customer of a message confirming acceptance of the Order for execution in accordance with point. 3.4.2 of the Regulations.
- 5.5. The deadline for readiness of the Product to be picked up by the Customer - if the Customer selects a personal Product collection, the Product will be ready to be picked up by the Customer within 25 Business Days, unless a shorter deadline is specified in the description of the Product or when placing the Order. In the case of Products with different deadline of readiness for collection, the deadline of readiness for collection is the longest given deadline, which, however, can not exceed 35 Business Days. The Seller will immediately inform the Customer about any expected delays in execution, e.g. by means of an appropriate message sent by e-mail to the address provided in the Order, and, if necessary, agree with the Customer on the further course of action. The Customer will be additionally informed by the Seller about the Product's readiness for collection. The beginning of the time for the Product to be ready for collection by the Customer is counted from the date of payment under the Sales Contract, and in any case not earlier than the date of receipt by the Customer of a message confirming acceptance of the Order for execution in accordance with point. 3.4.2 of the Regulations.

6. COMPLAINT HANDLING PROCEDURE

- 6.1. This clause 6 of the Regulations defines the complaint handling procedure common to all complaints submitted to the Seller, in particular complaints regarding Products, Sales Contracts, Electronic Services and other complaints related to the Seller's running of the Online Shop.
- 6.2. A complaint can be made by the Customer, for example:
- 6.2.1. in writing to the following address: Pamiątkowa 2/17, 61-512 Poznań, Poland, Poland;
- 6.2.2. in electronic form via e-mail to the following address: orders@wilda.eco.
- 6.3. The Product may be sent or returned under the complaint to the following address: Pamiątkowa 2/17, 61-512 Poznań, Poland, Poland. The Customer is asked to contact the Seller in advance before returning the Product for complaint.
- 6.4. It is recommended to provide in the description of the complaint: (1) the information and circumstances regarding the subject of the complaint, in particular the type and date of occurrence of the of irregularities or non-compliance with the contract; (2) the request to bring the Product into compliance with the contract or a statement of price reduction or withdrawal from the Sales Contract, or other claim and (3) the contact details of the complainant – this will facilitate and speed up the consideration of the complaint. The requirements specified in the preceding sentence only take the form of recommendations and do not affect the effectiveness of the complaints filed without the recommended description of the complaint.
- 6.5. In the event of a change in the contact details provided by the complainant during the complaint consideration, they are obliged to notify the Seller about it.
- 6.6. The complaint may be accompanied by evidence (e.g., photos, documents, or the Product) related to the subject of the complaint. The Seller may also ask the complainant to provide additional information or send evidence (e.g., photos), if it facilitates and speeds up the consideration of the complaint by the Seller.
- 6.7. The Seller will respond to the complaint promptly, no later than within 14 calendar days from the date of its submission.
- 6.8. The basis and scope of the Seller's statutory liability are defined by generally applicable laws, in particular in the Civil Code, the Consumer Rights Act and the 18th of July 2002 Act on Rendering of Electronic Services (consolidated text: Journal of Laws of 2020, item 344, further amended). In case of the complaint of the Product purchased by the Customer under the Sales Contract concluded with the Seller from January 1, 2023, the Seller's liability is defined by the provisions of the Consumer Rights Act in the wording applicable from January 1, 2023, in particular art. 43a – 43g of the Consumer Rights Act. These provisions specify in particular the basis and scope of the Seller's liability towards the consumer in the event of non-compliance of the Product with the Sales Contract.
- 6.9. The consumer provisions contained in this point 6. of the Regulations shall apply from January 1, 2021 and with regards to contracts concluded from that day also to the Customer/Service User who is a natural person concluding a contract directly related to their business, if the content of this contract indicates that it does not have a professional character for this person, resulting in particular from the subject of their business activity, disclosed on the basis of the provisions on the Central Registration and Information on Business (CEIDG).

7. EXTRAJUDICIAL METHODS OF SETTLING COMPLAINTS AND INVESTIGATING CLAIMS AND THE RULES OF ACCESS TO THESE PROCEDURES

- 7.1. Out-of-court methods of resolving disputes include (1) allowing the parties to reconcile their positions, for example through mediation; (2) proposing a solution to the dispute, e.g. through conciliation, and (3) resolving the dispute and imposing its solution on the parties, e.g. as part of arbitration (arbitration court). The detailed information on using the extrajudicial method of dealing with complaints and pursuing claims, the rules of access to these procedures by the Customer who is a consumer and an user friendly search engine of entities dealing with amicable dispute resolution are available on the website of the Office of Competition and Consumer Protection at: <https://polubowne.uokik.gov.pl/>.
- 7.2. At the the Office of the President of Competition and Consumer Protection there is a contact point, whose task, among others, is providing the consumers information in matters relating to the extrajudicial solving of consumer disputes. A consumer may contact the point: (1) by phone - by calling +48 22 55 60 332 or +48 22 55 60 333; (2) by e-mail - by sending a message to the following address: kontakt.adr@uokik.gov.pl or (3) in writing or in person - at the Office's Head Office at Plac Powstańców Warszawy 1 in Warsaw (00-030), Poland.
- 7.3. A consumer has the following options of using extrajudicial methods of settling complaints and asserting claims: (1) an application to settle a dispute to a permanent amicable consumer court; (2) an application regarding extrajudicial resolution of the dispute to the voivodeship inspector of the Trade Inspection; or (3) the assistance of the district (municipal) consumer ombudsman or social organization, whose statutory tasks include consumer protection (including the Consumer Federation, Association of Polish Consumers). The advice is provided, among others, via e-mail at porady@dlakonsumentow.pl and at the consumer helpline number +48 801 440 220 (call center on Business Days, 8:00 - 18:00, call fee according to the operator's tariff).

- 7.4. An online platform for settling disputes between the consumers and the entrepreneurs at the EU level (ODR platform) is available at <http://ec.europa.eu/odr>. The ODR platform is an interactive and multilingual website with a one-stop shop for the consumers and the entrepreneurs seeking out-of-court settlement of the contractual obligations arising from an online sales contract or a service contract (more information on the platform website itself or on the Internet site of the Office of Competition and Consumer Protection: <https://polubowne.uokik.gov.pl/platforma-odr,161.pl.html>).

8. THE RIGHT OF WITHDRAWAL FROM THE CONTRACT

- 8.1. The right to withdraw from a distant contract is not available to the consumer in relation to Sales Contract the subject of which is a Product which is non prefabricated, manufactured according to the consumer's specification or serving to satisfy his individual needs (e.g. Made-to-Order Products, the production of which, in accordance with the specifications of a given Order, takes place only after concluding an agreement with the Customer).
- 8.1.1. In the case of the Products referred to in the point above, the Sales Contract may be terminated by mutual consent of the parties - the Seller allows the possibility of canceling the Order at the Consumer's request, submitted no later than before the start of production, in electronic form to the e-mail address: orders@wilda.eco. Cancellation of the Order will be possible if the gathering of materials and components for the production of the Product has not yet started.
- 8.2. Subject to the exceptions indicated in point 8.1 and point 8.11 of the Regulations, a consumer who has concluded a distant contract may, within 14 calendar days, withdraw from it without giving a reason and without incurring costs, except for the costs specified in clause 8.10 of the Regulations. To meet the deadline, it is enough to send a statement before its expiry. A declaration of withdrawal from the contract can be made, for example:
- 8.2.1. in writing to the address: Pamiątkowa 2/17, 61-512 Poznań, Poland, Poland;
- 8.2.2. in electronic form via e-mail to the following address: orders@wilda.eco.
- 8.3. The return of the Product - movable items (including movable items with digital elements) as part of withdrawal from the contract may be made to the following address: Pamiątkowa 2/17, 61-512 Poznań, Poland, Poland.
- 8.4. An exemplary template of withdrawal form is included in Enclosure no 2 to the Consumer Rights Act and is additionally available in clause 13 of the Regulations. The consumer can use the template form, but it is not obligatory.
- 8.5. The deadline for withdrawal from the contract begins:
- 8.5.1. for the contract whereby the Seller releases the Product, being obliged to transfer its ownership (for example the Sales Contract) - from taking the Product into possession by the consumer or a third party designated by the consumer, other than the carrier, and in the case of a contract where: (1) many Products are delivered separately, in batches or in parts - from taking possession of the last Product, batch or part or (2) when it consists in regular delivery of Products for a definite period - from taking possession of the first Product;
- 8.5.2. for other contracts - from the date of contract conclusion.
- 8.6. In the event of withdrawal from a distant contract, the contract is considered null and void.
- 8.7. The Seller is obliged immediately, not later than within 14 calendar days from the date of receipt of the consumer's statement on withdrawal from the contract, to return all payments made by the consumer, consumer the delivery costs of the Product - a movable item including a movable item with digital elements (except for additional costs resulting from the delivery method chosen by the consumer other than the cheapest standard delivery method available in the Online Shop). The Seller shall refund the payment using the same method of payment as the consumer used, unless the consumer has expressly agreed to a different method of return, which does not cause any costs for him. In case of Products - movable items (including movable items with digital elements) - if the Seller has not offered to collect the Product from the consumer themselves, they may withhold the reimbursement of payments received from the consumer until the receipt of the Product or the delivery by the consumer of a proof of its return, whichever occurs first.
- 8.8. In case of Products - movable items (including movable items with digital elements) - the consumer is obliged immediately, no later than within 14 calendar days from the date on which they withdraw from the contract, to return the Product to the Seller or hand it over to the person authorized by the Seller for pickup, unless the Seller suggested that they will pick up the Product themselves. To meet the deadline, it is enough to return the Product before its expiry.
- 8.9. The Consumer is liable for the decrease in the value of the Product - a movable item (including a movable item with digital elements) - as a result of using it in a way that goes beyond what is necessary to establish the nature, characteristics and functioning of the Product.
- 8.10. Possible costs related to the consumer's withdrawal from the contract, which the consumer is obliged to pay:

- 8.10.1. If the consumer has chosen the method of delivery of the Product other than the cheapest standard delivery method available in the Online Shop, the Seller is not obliged to refund the additional costs paid by the consumer.
- 8.10.2. The consumer bears the direct costs of returning the Product. In the case of Products that cannot be returned by regular mail (e.g. large shipments), the consumer may incur higher costs of returning them, in accordance with the following sample price list of one of the carriers: <https://www.dpd.com/pl/pl/cennik-przesylek-krajowych/>, and the sample price list of one of the carriers for international shipments: DHL Express International Services Price List (item: Pobierz [download] Cennik Usług Międzynarodowych DL Express [DHL EXPRESS International Services Price List]).
- 8.10.3. In the case of a service which performance – at the explicit request of the consumer – started before the withdrawal period, the consumer who exercises the right to withdraw from the contract after making such a request is obliged to pay for the services fulfilled until the withdrawal. The payment amount is calculated proportionally to the scope of the service provided, taking into account the price or remuneration agreed in the contract. If the price or remuneration is excessive, the basis for calculating this amount is the market value of the service provided.
- 8.11. The right to withdraw from a distant contract is not available to the consumer in relation to contracts:
- 8.11.1. (1) for the provision of services, if the Seller has fully performed the service with the express consent of the consumer who has been informed before the performance of the service that he will lose his right of withdrawal once the contract has been fully performed by the Seller, and acknowledged that; (2) in which the price or remuneration depends on fluctuations in the financial market over which the Seller has no control and which may occur before the deadline for withdrawal from the contract; (3) in which the subject of the service is a Product which is non-prefabricated, manufactured according to the consumer's specification or serving to satisfy his individual needs; (4) in which the subject of the service is a Product which is quickly deteriorating or has a short shelf-life time; (5) in which the subject of the service is a Product which is delivered in a sealed package, which after opening the packaging can not be returned due to health protection or hygiene reasons, if the packaging was opened after delivery; (6) in which the subject of the service are Products which after delivery, due to their nature, are inseparably connected with other movable items; (7) in which the subject of the service are alcoholic beverages, the price of which was agreed at the conclusion of the Sales Contract, and which delivery may take place only after 30 days and which value depends on fluctuations in the market over which the Seller has no control; (8) in which the consumer explicitly demanded that the Seller should come to them for urgent repair or maintenance; if the Seller provides additional services other than those required by the consumer, or provides Products other than spare parts necessary to perform the repair or maintenance, the consumer has the right to withdraw from the contract in respect of additional services or products; (9) in which the subject of the service are sound or visual recordings or computer software delivered in a sealed package, if the packaging has been opened after delivery; (10) for delivery of newspapers, periodicals or magazines, with the exception of a subscription agreement; (11) concluded through a public auction; (12) for the provision of accommodation services, other than for residential purposes, transport of goods, car rental, catering, services related to leisure, entertainment, sports or cultural events, if the contract designates a day or period of service; (13) for the delivery of digital content that is not stored on a tangible medium if the performance of the service started before the deadline to withdraw from the contract with the consumer's express consent after being informed by the Seller about the loss of the right to withdraw from the contract and after acknowledging that, and if the Seller provided the consumer with the confirmation referred to in art. 15 sec. 1 and 2 or art. 21 sec. 1 of the Consumer Rights Act; (14) for the provision of services for which the consumer is obliged to pay the price for which the consumer has expressly requested the Seller to come to him for repair, and the service has already been fully performed with the express and prior consent of the consumer.
- 8.12. The provisions regarding a consumer contained in this clause 8. of the Regulations shall apply from January 1, 2021 and with regards to contracts concluded from that day also to the Customer/Service User who is a natural person concluding a contract directly related to their business, if the content of this contract indicates that it does not have a professional character for this person, resulting in particular from the subject of their business activity, disclosed on the basis of the provisions on the Central Registration and Information on Business (CEIDG), unless the application of the provisions contained in this point of the Regulations to these persons is prohibited.

9. PROVISIONS CONCERNING ENTREPRENEURS

- 9.1. This clause 9. of the Regulations and all provisions contained therein are addressed and therefore bind only the Customer or the Service User who is not a consumer. Moreover, from January 1, 2021 and with regards to contracts concluded from that day, this point of the Regulations and all the provisions contained therein are not addressed to and therefore do not bind the Customer/Service User also not a natural person concluding a contract directly related to their business, if the content of this contract indicates that that it does not have a professional character for this person, resulting in particular from the subject of their business activity, disclosed on the basis of the provisions on the Central Registration and Information on Business (CEIDG).

- 9.2. The Seller shall have the right to withdraw from the Sales Contract within 14 calendar days of its conclusion. In this case, withdrawal from the Sales Contract may take place without giving a reason and does not give rise to any claims on the part of the Customer against the Seller.
- 9.3. The Seller's liability under the warranty for the Product or non-compliance of the Product with the Sales Contract shall be excluded.
- 9.4. The Seller will respond to the complaint within 30 calendar days from the date of its receipt.
- 9.5. The Seller shall have the right to limit available payment methods, including the right to request a full or partial prepayment regardless of the payment method chosen by the Customer and the fact of conclusion of the Sales Contract.
- 9.6. The Service Provider may terminate a contract for the provision of an Electronic Service with immediate effect and without stating the reasons by sending an appropriate statement to the Service User.
- 9.7. The liability of the Service Provider/Seller to the Service User/Customer regardless of its legal basis is limited, both for one claim and for all claims altogether, up to the amount of the price paid and costs of delivery resulting from the Sales Contract, not exceeding however the sum of one thousand zlotys (PLN). The amount limitation referred to in the preceding sentence shall apply to all claims directed by the Service User/Customer against the Service Provider/Seller, even if the Sales Contract is not concluded or in cases not related to the Sales Contract. The Service Provider/Seller shall be liable to the Service User/Customer only for typical damage foreseeable at the time of the contract conclusion and shall not be liable for lost profits. The Seller is also not responsible for delay in transporting the shipment.
- 9.8. All disputes arising between the Seller/Service Provider and the Customer/Service User shall be submitted to the court having jurisdiction over the headquarters of the Seller/Service Provider.

10. PRODUCTS REVIEWS

- 10.1. The Seller does not enable its Customers to issue and access reviews of the Products and the Online Shop.

11. ILLEGAL CONTENT AND OTHER CONTENT THAT DOES NOT COMPLY WITH THE REGULATIONS

- 11.1. This section of the Regulations contains provisions arising from the Digital Services Act to the extent that they concern the Online Shop and the Service Provider. As a rule, the Service User is not obliged to provide content when using the Online Shop, unless the Regulations require the provision of specific data (e.g. data for placing an Order). The Service User may be able to provide data in the Online Shop using the tools provided for this purpose by the Service Provider. The Service User is obliged to comply with the rules contained in the Regulations each time he provides content.
- 11.2. CONTACT POINT - The Service Provider designates the email hello@wilda.eco as the single point of contact. The contact point enables direct communication between the Service Provider and the authorities of the EU Member States, the European Commission, and the European Board for Digital Services, and at the same time enables the Users of the service (including Service Users) to communicate directly, quickly and in a friendly manner with the Service Provider electronically, for the purposes of applying the Digital Services Act. The Service Provider designates Polish and English languages for the purpose of communication with its contact point.
- 11.3. Illegal Content notice and action mechanisms as required by Article 16 of the Digital Services Act:
 - 11.3.1. To the e-mail address hello@wilda.eco, any person or entity may report to the Service Provider the presence of certain information that the person or entity considers to be Illegal Content.
 - 11.3.2. The notification should be sufficiently precise and adequately substantiated. To this end, the Service Provider enables and facilitates submitting – to the e-mail address provided above – reports containing all of the following elements: (1) a sufficiently substantiated explanation of the reasons why the individual or entity alleges the information in question to be illegal content; (2) a clear indication of the exact electronic location of that information, such as the exact URL or URLs, and, where necessary, additional information enabling the identification of the illegal content adapted to the type of content and to the specific type of service; (3) the name and email address of the individual or entity submitting the notice, except in the case of information involving one of the offences referred to in Articles 3 to 7 of Directive 2011/93/EU; (4) a statement confirming the bona fide belief of the individual or entity submitting the notice that the information and allegations contained therein are accurate and complete.
 - 11.3.3. The notice referred to above shall be considered to give rise to actual knowledge or awareness for the purposes of Article 6 in respect of the specific item of information concerned where they allow Service Provider, acting diligently, to identify the illegality of the relevant activity or information without a detailed legal examination.
 - 11.3.4. If the report contains electronic contact details of the person or entity that made the report, the Service Provider shall, without undue delay, send such person or entity a confirmation of receipt of the report. The Service Provider shall also notify such person or entity of its decision with respect to the information to which the report relates, providing information on the possibility of appealing the decision.

11.3.5. The Service Provider shall process any notices that they receive under the mechanisms referred above and take their decisions in respect of the information to which the notices relate, in a timely, diligent, non-arbitrary and objective manner. Where the Service Provider uses automated means for that processing or decision-making, they shall include information on such use in the notification referred to in the previous paragraph.

11.4. Information on the restrictions imposed by the Service Provider in connection with the use of the Online Shop, in relation to the information provided by Service Users:

11.4.1. The Service User is bound by the following rules in the case of providing any content within the Online Shop:

11.4.1.1. the obligation to use the Online Shop, including to post content (e.g. as part of Orders or Account), in accordance with its intended use, these Regulations and in a manner consistent with the law and good practice, taking into account the respect for personal rights and copyrights and intellectual property of the Service Provider and third parties.

11.4.1.2. the obligation to provide content that is factually accurate and not misleading;

11.4.1.3. prohibition on the provision of illegal content, including the prohibition on the provision of Illegal Content;

11.4.1.4. prohibition of sending unsolicited commercial information (spam) via the Online Shop;

11.4.1.5. prohibition of providing content that violates the generally accepted rules of netiquette, including content that is vulgar or offensive;

11.4.1.6. the obligation to have – if necessary – all required rights and permissions to provide such content on the pages of the Online Shop, in particular copyrights or required licenses, permits and consents for their use, distribution, sharing or publication, in particular the right to publish and distribute in the Online Shop and the right to use and disseminate the image or personal data in the case of content, which includes the image or personal data of third parties.

11.4.1.7. the obligation to use the Online Shop in a manner that does not pose a threat to the security of the Service Provider's ICT system, the Online Shop or third parties.

11.4.2. The Service Provider reserves the right to moderate content provided by the Service Users to the Online Shop. Moderation is carried out in good faith and with due diligence and on the Service Provider's own initiative or on the received notification in order to detect, identify and remove Illegal Content or other content that does not comply with the Regulations or to prevent access to them or to take the necessary measures to comply with the requirements of European Union law and the law of any EU Member State which is in compliance with European Union law, including the requirements set out in the DSA, or the requirements contained in the Regulations.

11.4.3. The moderation process may be carried out manually by a human or be based on automated or partially automated tools to help the Service Provider identify Illegal Content or other content that does not comply with the Regulations. After identifying such content, the Service Provider makes a decision as to whether to remove or disable access to the content, or otherwise limit its visibility or take other actions that it deems necessary (e.g. contacts the Service User to clarify objections and change the content). The Service Provider shall inform the Service User who provided the content (if we have their contact details) in a clear and easily understandable manner about its decision, the reasons for making it and the available options to appeal against this decision.

11.4.4. The Service Provider, in exercising its rights and obligations under the Digital Services Act, is obliged to act in a diligent, objective and proportionate manner, with due regard to the rights and legitimate interests of all parties involved, including the fundamental rights of the Service Users enshrined in the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union, such as the freedom of expression, freedom and pluralism of the media, and other fundamental rights and freedoms.

11.5. Any comments, claims, complaints, appeals or objections regarding the decision or other actions or lack of action by the Service Provider on the basis of the received notice or the Service Provider's decision made in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations may be submitted in a procedure analogous to the complaint procedure indicated in clause 6. of these Regulations. This procedure is free of charge and allows you to submit complaints electronically to the e-mail address provided. The use of the notice and action mechanisms is without prejudice to the right of the person or entity concerned to bring proceedings before a court and does not affect its other rights.

11.6. The Service Provider shall consider any comments, claims, complaints, appeals or objections regarding the decision or other actions or lack of action by the Service Provider on the basis of the received notice or the Service Provider's decision in a timely, non-discriminatory, objective, and non-arbitrary manner. If the complaint or other report contains sufficient reasons for the Service Provider to believe that their decision not to take action in response to the complaint is unjustified or that the relevant information is not illegal and inconsistent with the Regulations, or contains information indicating that the complainant's action does not justify the measure taken, the Service Provider shall, without undue delay, revoke or amend its decision as to whether to remove or disable access to the content or otherwise reduce their visibility or take any other action it deems necessary.

- 11.7. Service Users, persons or entities who have reported Illegal Content, to whom the Service Provider's decisions regarding Illegal Content or content inconsistent with the Regulations are addressed, have the right to choose any out-of-court dispute resolution body certified by the Digital Services Coordinator of the EU Member State to resolve disputes regarding these decisions, including in relation to complaints that have not been resolved within the Service Provider's internal complaints resolution system.

12. FINAL PROVISIONS

- 12.1. The contracts concluded via the Online Shop are concluded in Polish/English.
- 12.2. Change of Regulations:
- 12.2.1. The Service Provider reserves the right to amend these Regulations for important reasons, i.e.: changes in the law; changes in payment or delivery methods or dates, or being subject to a legal or regulatory obligation; changes in scope or form of Electronic Services being provided; adding new Electronic Services; the need to counteract an unforeseen and direct threat related to the protection of the Online Shop, including Electronic Services and Service Users/Customers against fraud, malware, spam, data breach or other cybersecurity threats - to the extent that these changes affect the implementation of the provisions of these Regulations.
- 12.2.2. Notification of proposed changes is sent in advance at least 15 days before the date of entry into force of these changes, with the reservation that the change may be introduced without the 15-day notice period if the Service Provider: (1) is subject to a legal or regulatory obligation, pursuant to which he is obliged to change the Regulations in a way that prevents him from meeting the 15-day notification period; or (2) must, by way of exception, amend its Regulations to counteract an unforeseen and imminent threat related to the protection of the Online Shop, including Electronic Services and Service Users/Customers against fraud, malware, spam, data breaches or other cybersecurity threats. In the last two cases referred to in the previous sentence, the introduction of changes takes place with immediate effect, unless it is possible or necessary to apply a longer deadline for introducing changes, of which the Service Provider notifies each time.
- 12.2.3. In case of continuous contracts (e.g. the provision of Electronic Services - Account), the Service User has the right to terminate the contract with the Service Provider before the expiry of the notification period of the proposed changes. Such a termination becomes effective within 15 days from the date of receipt of the notification. In the case of concluding a contract of a continuous nature, the amended Regulations bind the Service User, if he has been properly notified of the changes, in accordance with the notification period before their introduction and has not terminated the contract during this period. In addition, at any time after receiving notification of changes, the Customer may accept the changes and thus resign from the further duration of the notification period. In the event of concluding a contract of a different nature than continuous contracts, the amendments to the Regulations will not in any way affect the rights acquired by the Service User before the date of entry into force of the amendments to the Regulations, in particular the amendments to the Regulations will not affect Orders being submitted or already submitted and Sales Contracts concluded, implemented or performed.
- 12.2.4. In the event that the amendment to the Regulations results in the introduction of any new fees or an increase in the current ones, the consumer has the right to withdraw from the contract..
- 12.3. In matters not covered by these Regulations, generally applicable provisions of Polish law shall apply, in particular: the Civil Code; the 18th of July 2002 Act on Rendering of Electronic Services (Journal of Laws of 2002 no. 144, pos. 1204 further amended); the Consumer Rights Act; as well as other relevant provisions of generally applicable law.
- 12.4. These Regulations shall not exclude the laws of the country of habitual residence of a consumer concluding the contract with the Seller/Service Provider, which cannot be excluded by a contract. In such a case, the Seller/Service Provider guarantees the consumer the protection afforded to him by provisions which cannot be excluded by a contract.
